

Minority Supplier Recertification Application

The period of validity for MBE certification is one year. A certified MBE shall make an application for certification renewal on the appropriate forms at least forty-five days prior to the certification expiration date. Your MBE certificate will be terminated if an application for renewal, including all required documentation, is not received before the expiration date of your current certification.

The steps for minority supplier recertification application are as follows:

